Miss Betty Estes to Leave Friday For National REA Beauty Contest

Miss Betty Estes, beautiful 17-year-old blonde from the tiny village of Grantsburg in Johnson county, Friday will make the first step on the greatest adventure of her life.

Betty will board an airliner at Paducah about 5:30 p. m. Friday en route to Dallas, Texas, to represent Illinois in a nationwide beauty contest.

The story really begins back in August when Betty entered the beauty contest sponsored by the

Capping Exercises Friday for School Of Practical Nursing

Students of the second class of the Harrisburg School of Practical Nursing will complete 18 weeks of classroom instruction this week and capping exercises will be held Friday at 8 p. m. in Bonnell gymnasium.

Classes under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Oshel, coordinator of nurses, have been held in classrooms in Davenport gym, HTHS. Starting Monday the student nurses will begin their supervised training and continue classroom work in the four participating hospitals—the Harrisburg and Lightner hospitals in Harrisburg, Hardin County General hospital in Rosiclare and the Carmi Township hospital in Carmi.

During the past two weeks four guest speakers have appeared before the student nurses—Lee Geiger talked on "X-ray and the patient," Mrs. Paula Swan discussed "The Nurse and the value of charts and reports," Merritt Kennedy lectured on "Laboratory Procedures in the hospital." All are from the Harrisburg Medical Foundation.

Also speaking to the class was Mrs. Olga Nagle, foods consultant for the State Department of Public Health, with headquarters in Carbondale.

By successfully completing the 18 weeks of classroom instruction the students have earned their caps, which will be presented in appropriate ceremony Friday.

Four Killed When Scaffold Snaps Loose

PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (AP)—Four men were killed and seven injured Wednesday when one end of a construction scaffold snapped loose, hurling the men and equipment 123 feet to the ground.

The men were employees of the M. W. Kellogg Construction Co. They were building a cracking unit tower for the Texas Co. refinery.

Economists Expect Slight Decline in April

Business Slowdown Triggers Larger Than Usual Jump

WASHINGTON (AP)—Labor Department economists predicted today unemployment will rise above four million in January, February and March and decline slightly in April.

They forecast the jobless total for January will range from 4,300,000 to 4,500,000 when computed by the Labor and Commerce Departments in about two weeks.

The government reported 3,400,000 unemployed in December. The number of workers without jobs usually increases from December to January but this year the business slowdown will trigger larger-than-usual jump, the economists said.

They said postwar trends indicate unemployment will level off and then decline to 3,700,000 or so by May. But they also warned of a possibility of bigger-than-expected joblessness if things don't pick up soon.

The labor economists said unemployment could reach five million if 1959 is a bad year for the auto industry, if consumers hold back on buying, and if businessmen slash stocks on their shelves. That would push unemployment above the six per cent mark.

"If unemployment spreads to trade and services—watch out," said one of the economists. "We'll be in for real hard times."

Nearly a million more workers in January than in December reported being out of work for a week or more in applying for unemployment compensation. The insured unemployment figure rose to 2,900,000 in the middle of this month. It was nearly triple the mid-October figure.

The official unemployment figure is always higher since domestic workers, farm workers, self-employed and other groups are not covered by jobless benefits.

The government economists said heavy manufacturing industries—steel, auto, machinery and appliances—will bear the brunt of layoffs. Retail stores also are expected to cut back jobs in addition to the usual slow-down in construction and apparel industries.

Two Held in Jail For Gas Thefts

Loren Barlow, 22, Cobden, and Cecil Dangbar, 21, Carbondale, are held in the Saline county jail following their confessions that they stole 35 gallons of gasoline on Billman road a short distance south of Eldorado the night of Jan. 23.

The two were picked up in Union county as burglary suspects and when they admitted the gas thefts to officers there, Saline County Sheriff William T. Barrett had them brought here.

Triplets Born at Eldorado to Couple Living Near Raleigh

Triplets were born in Saline county a week ago today, it was learned yesterday.

Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Treacy, who reside north of Raleigh, and the babies were born at Ferrell hospital in Eldorado.

Dr. Robert V. Ferrell said it was the first time that he had delivered triplets. Triplets were born seven years ago at the hospital, he said, but Dr. N. A. Thompson was the attending physician.

The triplets are all boys. Biggest weighs about six pounds and the other two around four. The two smaller ones were taken to the premature center at East St. Louis because of their size. The biggest one and his mother were still in the hospital yesterday.

Last year triplets were born in Saline county. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Raben of Harrisburg and the babies were born at Harrisburg hospital.

Rites Saturday At Carrier Mills For Wm. McNew

William McNew, 72, died in his home at Carrier Mills at 10 a. m. Wednesday. He had been in failing health for several months and was a retired coal miner having last worked for the Wasson Coal Co. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard McNew and was preceded in death by his first wife, Ora Abney McNew, in March of 1950, and by his two brothers.

He is survived by his wife, Myrtle Mitchell McNew, and seven children as follows: Bob McNew and R. J. McNew, Carrier Mills, Mrs. Bea Fodor, Harrisburg RFD 2, Mrs. Lucille Ferrell and Mrs. Estelle Pattinson, Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Theresa Cross and Mrs. Bessie Cook of Los Angeles, Calif. There are 14 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Mr. McNew's sister, Mrs. Anna Knickerbocker of Harrisburg, is at present in the Wohl hospital in St. Louis, Mo.

There are four stepchildren surviving.

The body will lie in state at the Miller funeral home in Carrier Mills until 12:30 p. m. Saturday when it will be taken to the Baptist church to lie in state until the funeral services at 2 p. m. The casket will be closed at the beginning of the funeral. Rev. Berie Smith will officiate and burial will be in the Salem cemetery.

Pallbearers will be: Cecil McNew, Claude McNew, Harold McNew, Roger Knickerbocker, Wayne Davis and Granvil Hill.

Judge Orders Recount Of Ballots in Mt. Vernon Mayoralty Election

MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (AP)—Circuit Court Judge Randall Quinn dry has ordered a recount of ballots cast in the mayoralty election of Virgil Bailey.

The judge ordered the recount Wednesday in the court suit brought by Joseph Dull against Bailey contesting the election. Dull lost to Bailey by a 37-vote margin.

Among the 30 witnesses as the defense began its case Wednesday was Sen. Paul Broyles, a Mount Vernon Republican. Twenty-six of the defense witnesses were asked if they had voted in the election and 11 said they had and voted for Dull.

Youth is Charged with First Degree Murder

Keenan Fined $56,000, Gets 2-Year Sentence

DANVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Attorneys for Cook County Assessor Frank Keenan today planned to appeal the Assessor's conviction and sentencing for income tax evasion.

Keenan was sentenced Wednesday to two years in federal prison and fined $56,000. Correspondents said he posted a $15,000 cash bond that would guarantee payment of the fine.

His brothers, James, 62, and Mark, 66, each posted a $5,000 appearance bond and had until today to post bonds of $6,000 additional. They were sentenced to one year and a day and fined $5,000 each on conspiracy charges.

Keenan was convicted Dec. 21 on eight of 11 counts of evasion of corporate and personal income taxes totalling $211,856 for the years 1950-52. His brothers were found guilty on a conspiracy count while his sons, George, 29, and Edward, 33, were freed.

Federal District Judge Casper Platt handed down the sentence after rejecting a motion for a new trial and denying the Keenans probation.

Still protesting his innocence, Keenan said he had no intention of stepping down from the assessor's post.

"I am the elected official," he said, "and I have no reason to resign."

As far as State's Atty. Benjamin S. Adamowski was concerned, however, Keenan automatically forfeited his office.

SVDA Fund Drive Discussed at Meeting in Equality

The fund drive of the Saline Valley Development Association, which is ready to start in Saline and Gallatin counties, was discussed Tuesday night at a meeting of the SVDA executive board at Equality.

It was voted that the treasurer of the group present surety bond in the amount of $5,000 and that procedure should start at once to have articles of incorporation for the SVDA drawn up by an attorney.

It was announced that there will be both fund drive certificates and wallet cards. The certificates will be given to businesses and professional men and the cards to individuals.

The executive board did not bring the matter to a vote, but expressed sentiment that it favored SVDA participation in the Industrial Exposition in New York City in May.

At this exposition communities present exhibits to bring their areas to the attention of industrialists.

Schedule Inquest Into Death of Golconda Man

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ill. (AP)—An inquest is scheduled Friday into the mysterious death of a fluorspar miner at Elizabethtown.

The man, John E. Blakley, 51, Golconda, died Wednesday in Fardin County General Hospital at Rosiclare without regaining consciousness.

Blakley was found Saturday night at the bottom of the stairs in an Elizabethtown building where authorities said he had been playing poker earlier.

Blakley was first taken to jail, but a doctor was summoned and ordered that he be taken to the hospital. Dr. John R. Duffy who performed an autopsy, said Blakley's death was caused by a "massive cerebral hemorrhage" resulting from a skull fracture.

He said he thought the injury was caused by a "terrific blow on the head" and not by a fall.

Blakley's wife told Sheriff William Ferrell that her husband had a "roll of money" in his pocket when he left home Saturday afternoon. Ferrell said two $20 bills were found on Blakley.

CHARLES STARKWEATHER, 19, "mad dog" killer of at least 10 persons, was captured late Wednesday in Wyoming. He is shown with his 14-year-old sweetheart, Carol Fugate, whom he absolved of any connection with the slaying spree.

Perz Heads Personnel Dep't

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Gov. Stratton Wednesday named Robert E. Perz, Springfield, to head the state personnel department.

The appointment is effective Feb. 1. Perz is the Governor's patronage chief, an administrative assistant principally handling patronage matters.

Perz will succeed Donald D. McAmis, who has been personnel director since the new personnel department was set up by the 1955 legislature. McAmis, an official of General Motors Corp., has held the job on loan from his company.

Perz, 39, is a former Springfield high school principal and teacher and a native of Chicago. He left Springfield high school to join Stratton's staff in 1955.

The personnel position carries a salary of $12,000 a year, which under existing law will be increased to $15,000 next January.

The personnel department was created with bipartisan support in 1955 to expand and improve the state's civil service system.

Find Three Small Children Living 'Like Frightened Animals' in Trailer

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP)—Three small children who lived "like frightened animals" in wire cages built in the back of a trailer have been turned over to Yakima County authorities, officials said today.

Officials said the two boys, 5 and 2, and a 3-year-old girl, apparently were kept in the wire cages most of the day in addition to being forced to sleep in them. Held at the county jail for investigation in the case were William B. Hankins, 49, and Ruth J. Kott, 38.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Runyan said he investigated the 12-by-14 foot trailer mounted on a truck chassis near Sunnyside, Wash. Saturday after a salesman reported the children were caged up in the trailer.

Runyan said he arrived at the trailer about 10:30 a. m. and found Hankins still in bed. He said two of the children were

West Frankfort Man Named to Police Merit Board

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Gov. Stratton today announced appointment of Lyle F. Tomlinson, West Frankfort, to the Illinois Police Merit Board, succeeding George W. Cullen, Springfield.

Cullen resigned because of the press of personal business. Tomlinson will complete the term which expires in March, 1961.

The new appointment is effective Feb. 3. Tomlinson, previously served on the merit board from December, 1950, to June 1955.

Stratton said he and the state were deeply appreciative of Cullen's contributions as a member of the board.

Other members of the board are Chairman Henry A. Gardner, Chicago, and Raphael Yalden, Rockford.

Flora Man Is Sentenced for Auto Fatality

OLNEY, Ill. (AP)—Robert Duke, 45, Flora, has been sentenced to from one-to-seven years in prison on a manslaughter charge growing out of a wreck seven years ago.

Duke was sentenced here Wednesday after Circuit Judge Caswell Crebs denied a defense motion for a new trial. A jury found Duke guilty last week.

Duke was charged in the death of 4-year-old Dixie Faye Huffman. The girl's mother, Mrs. Wanda Huffman, also died in the Jan. 6, 1951, wreck when their car was forced into a bridge.

The case was reopened last spring after new evidence was uncovered.

Legal Tug-of-War Develops On Prosecution

Youthful Slayer Of 10 Persons Regains Bravado

DOUGLAS, Wyo. (AP)—Charles Starkweather, 19, "mad dog" killer of 10 and possibly 11 persons, was charged with first degree murder here today as a legal tug-of-war developed over his prosecution.

Meanwhile, the young marksman's only expressed concern was about his personal appearance.

Converse County Sheriff Earl Heflin served Starkweather with a murder warrant, signed by Justice of the Peace Harry Wise. It accused Starkweather of murdering Merle Collison, 34, a Great Falls, Mont., shoe salesman.

Lt. E. R. Henninger of the Lincoln, Neb., police department then questioned Starkweather. Henninger said he wanted to find out if the young man had committed more murders of which authorities were not aware.

But Henninger complained that Wyoming authorities showed they were "not cooperating," because he was not permitted to talk to Starkweather until today.

Asks for Boots

Starkweather was roused shortly after 7 a. m. in the Converse County jail by Heflin, one of two law officers who ran the short and cocky young marksman to earth Wednesday in a bullet-smeared chase along a highway.

"How about my cowboy boots back?" asked Starkweather, who is wanted for a murder of the shoe salesman here and 9 or 10 killings in and around Lincoln, Neb.

Then in succession he asked for and got a breakfast of bacon and eggs, juice, toast and milk; his fancy black and white cowboy boots; and a bar of soap—to wash from his red hair the black shoe polish which he had used as a dye in a futile attempt at disguise.

Starkweather's bravado seemed to be returning. It had vanished for a time Wednesday after officials shot holes in his stolen

Attend Double Funeral of Parents Of Former Residents

Charles Wagner and daughters, Mrs. Charles Gustin and Mrs. Fred Warmelink, were in Benton Tuesday to attend the double funeral of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cox at the Freeman funeral home.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox, who were the parents of Mrs. W. J. (Blanche) McCleish, former resident of Harrisburg but now living in Fairview, had been in failing health for sometime and died within hours of one another.

Mr. Cox suffered a stroke and died Saturday and Mrs. Cox, a patient in the Barnes hospital for a month, died early Sunday morning.

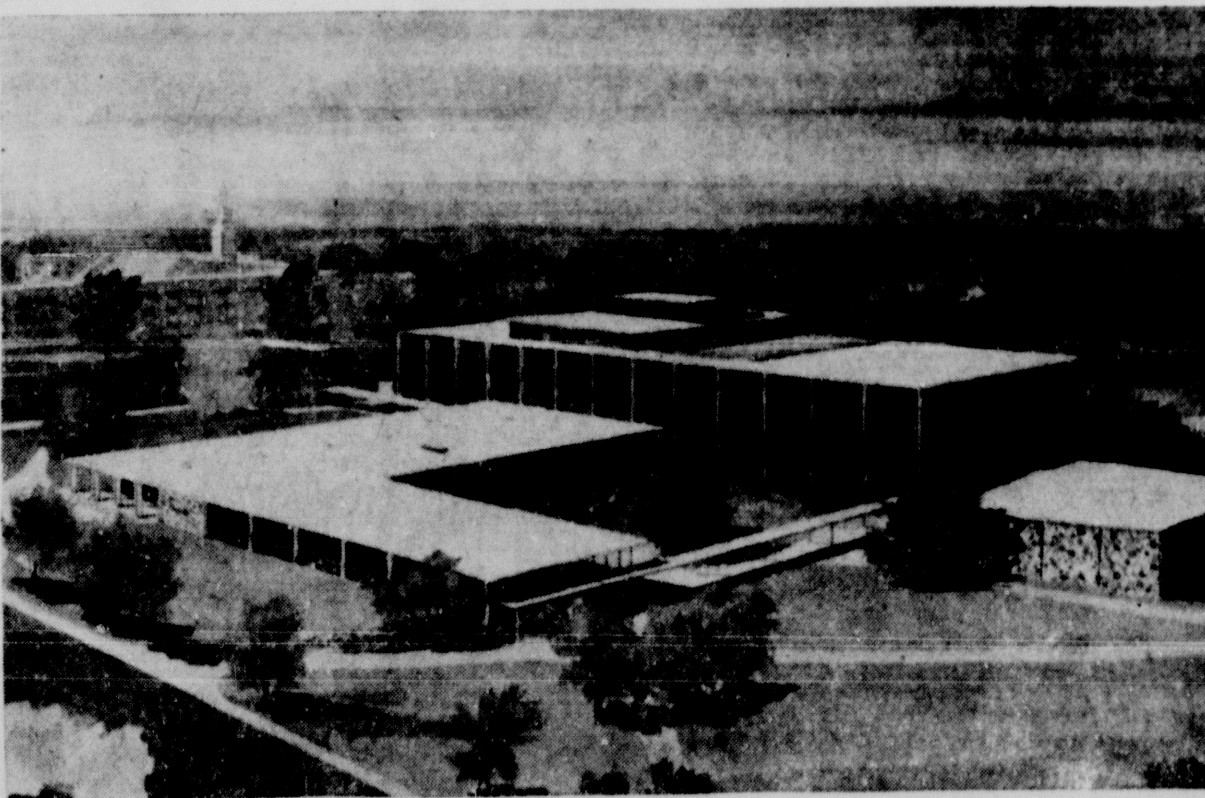

Mr. and Mrs. Cox were well known in Harrisburg as they visited and lived here for a time with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. McCleish. Another daughter, Mrs. T. O. Elliott (Edna), was a teacher in the Harrisburg Junior high school for several years.

Other surviving children are Mrs. Charles James of Princeton, Ind., and Mrs. Norman Wood, Aurora.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
McConaughy Waited Six Months To Buy Color TV Set Loaned By NBC; India's Anniversary Recalls Phillips Secret Report; Also Recalls Gandhi Warning That If India Fails, Asia Dies.

WASHINGTON. — The alibi being advanced by Federal Communications commissioners regarding their free use of expensive color TV sets is that the sets were merely on loan from the manufacturers so they could more effectively understand the color TV problem.

This was rather a late alibi for pleasant ex-Chairman George McConaughy who has now returned from the FCC and gone back to practice law in Columbus, Ohio.

When my assistant, Lawrence Berlin, phoned McConaughy in Columbus and asked him when he returned the color TV set he received from the National Broadcasting Company, McConaughy replied:

"I didn't return it; I bought it."

"When did you make the purchase?"

"When I left the commission.
After I left the commission, I asked them if they would sell the set. They said 'yes,' they would sell it for $200."

"But when did this occur?"

"I wanted to find out if it would work in Columbus," the ex-chairman explained. "I brought it back with me but we had trouble getting it to work. It finally did, and I paid them $200."

For the fourth time Berlin asked when this happened.

"I paid them a couple of weeks ago—two, three, four—I've forgotten just what date. I didn't know whether it was a good buy or not. They were advertising new sets in Columbus for $300 and $400. I didn't know whether it was worth it to keep it or not, but I finally decided to keep it."

June 30, 1957, so it took him about six months to decide whether to buy the $200 color TV set.

Note—The acceptance of color TV sets is one of the lesser charges brought against FCC commissioners in the secret memo prepared by Bernard Schwartz, counsel for the Moulder committee.

Congressmen who once yelled over hams and deep freezes have run away from this probe like jackrabbits in front of a plane at the Los Angeles airport.

This week is the eighth anniversary of Indian independence and today is the tenth anniversary of the death of Mahatma Gandhi.

It has been a long time since I spent a week end at the Gandhi Asram on the muddy, slow-moving Sabarmati river where water buffalo came down to drink in the evening and I went down to bathe in the early morning. Strangely what I remember most is how Gandhi's niece, then aged 6, came into my room, rummaged through my knapsack, and squeezed tooth paste all over my bedding roll.

But what I should remember of course, is the great progress India has made since then. At that time India was under British rule, the caste system and religious rivalry divided the country, Gandhi's weapon of the boy cott was hurting, crowds were moved down by British police in Bombay, Gandhi was locked up in a British jail.

Time passed. Another war engulfed the world, and India was the staging point from which Allied armies sought to penetrate up through the Burma Road to China. In 1944, I published the secret report of U. S. Ambassador William Phillips whom Roosevelt had sent to India to persuade India to give military support to the Allies.

He recommended that if India was given the promise of independence it would throw thousands of soldiers into battle.

"It is time for the British to act," Phillips wrote Roosevelt.
"This they can do by a solemn declaration from the King Emperor that India will achieve her independence at a specific date after the war. . . I feel strongly Mr. President, that in view of our military position in India, we should have a voice in these matters."

But when Roosevelt approached crusty old Winston Churchill the prime minister pounded on the table and said:

"I have always been right about Hitler and everyone else in Europe. I'm also right about Indian policy. Any change in Indian policy now will mean a blood bath."

The Phillips report was highly

Saline County Quota For Savings Bonds In '58 $1,554,000

Saline county has accepted an annual quota for sales of E and H United States Savings Bonds for the year 1958 of $1,554,000, according to Harley H. Shepherd of Harrisburg, General County Chairman of the Savings Bonds Committee.

Saline county attained 104.1% of the 1957 annual quota, with sales of $1,668,448.

Sales of Series E and H bonds in the state totaled $413,748,482, or 93.2% of the state's quota of $444, 000,000. Sales for 1957 were 9.7% lower than those for 1956, when total sales were $458,094,676.

The state of Illinois has been assigned a quota of $430,400,000, for 1958, according to T. Merle Paul,
State Director of the Savings Bonds Division. "Due to the splendid work of our Volunteer organization and the cooperation of bankers, industrialists, newspapers, radio and TV stations, labor leaders, women's organizations, school and agricultural groups and many others, we had a record last year to be proud of, and look forward to even greater achievements next year," said Mr. Paul.

Illinois sales last year accounted for 8.3% of national sales of $5 billion.

here from Du Barry...

a beauty specialist
to chart new beauty
for you...

Are you making the most of your features? If not, here's your chance to learn the "do's and don'ts" in make-up and hair styling. An Expert from DuBarry will be here all next week to chart an analysis just for you. She'll study your face type, your skin tone, your hair line... and send you home with a personalized "prescription" for a new, and lovelier you. Don't miss your chance for a "salon" lesson in beauty. Call today for your appointment... it's complimentary, of course.

P.S. And be sure to ask about new Vibrance Creme Masque. It's a new continental formula that's entirely different from anything you've ever used.

Mrs. Paul Baker Hostess To Dorris Heights Home Bureau

The Dorris Heights Home Bureau unit met in the home of Mrs. Paul Baker at 7 p. m. Tuesday. There were nine members and two guests, Mrs. Grover Fulbright and Mrs. Jerry Irvin, at ending. Mrs. Mabel Pankey, chairman, opened the meeting and Mrs. Roy Caldwell, vice chairman, reported. Mrs. Kenneth Aud gave the secretary and treasurer's reports.

The minor lesson on "Friendliness" was presented by Mrs. Caldwell and the major lesson, "Beef in Our Meals," was given by Mrs. Barney Ashe. Refreshments were served by the hostess and Mrs. Pankey was in charge of the recreation.

Members were urged to attend the Saline County Home Bureau meeting on March 6, concerning the membership drive.

Janet Lea Wiggins, 5-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wiggins, RFD 1, Harrisburg, was rushed to Children's hospital, St. Louis, Mo., on Jan. 20. She has undergone major surgery and is reported to be recovering.

Gaskins City Home Bureau Meets With Mrs. Wanda Lane

The Gaskins City Home Bureau unit met in the home of Mrs. Wanda Lane Tuesday with six members and two visitors present. Roll call was answered with New Year's resolutions. The major topic, "Beef in Our Meals," was given by the hostess and Mrs. Marquita Lambert and they served two beef dishes to the guests.

Others attending were: Mrs. Margie Alexander, Mrs. Verna Lockaby, Mrs. Jeanette Alexander, Mrs. Jewell Smith, and Mrs. Jeanette Alexander and Mrs. Lizzie Cummings.

Harrisburg and West Frankfort Families Visit Fla. Vacationers

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cozart, Harrisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Sevil Dorris, West Frankfort, returned Tuesday from a trip to Florida. They visited in Miami and Orlando where Mr. Cozart and Mr. Dorris attended the game cock tournament.

They also visited Mrs. Cozart's brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Gabel of Detroit, Mich., who are vacationing at Pompano Beach, Fla.

Saline County College Club Meets With Mrs. James Sullivan

The Saline County College club met with Mrs. James Sullivan, 316 South Cherry street, Jan. 16.

Following a brief business meeting, Mrs. W. W. Chunn, program chairman, introduced Miss Alvina Shestak, history teacher at the H. T. H. S. Miss Shestak reviewed the book, "The Story of the American Revolution," by Malone, Hillholland, and Kaplan. As she talked, she displayed a large copy of the famed document, "The Declaration of Independence," and discussed the various signers of this instrument. She also displayed the book which she was reviewing. Those present enjoyed looking at it and seeing the pictures as they listened to the very interesting stories Miss Shestak told about well-known Americans such as Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson and John Hancock. They enjoyed even more hearing about less famous personages like James Wilson, Abraham Clark, and George Read.

Miss Shestak has often visited College club and given her delightful talks and excellent book reviews spiced with her inimit-

Sunday School Class Meets With Mrs. Peggy Brouillette

The Future Leaders of Christ Sunday school class of the Spring Valley Social Brethren church met in the home of its teacher, Mrs. Peggy Brouillette, Friday. Phyllis Fulkerson opened the meeting with a devotion taken from St. John 1 and visitors, Jesse Gibbs and Victor Gibbs, were welcomed by the members.

Election of officers was held and the following were elected: Phyllis Fulkerson, president and LaDonna Duncan, secretary. The business part of the meeting closed with a prayer led by Darlene Duncan.

There were games and prizes won by Christine Bethel, Johnny Tarlton and Phyllis Fulkerson. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Phyllis Fulkerson, Feb. 21.

Saline County Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Kenneth White

The Saline County Garden club held its first meeting of the New Year in the home of Mrs. Kenneth White, 607 West Poplar street, Harrisburg, at 2 p. m. Tuesday.

Mrs. LeRoy Reese, president, called the meeting to order and 24 members answered roll call with "Now is the Time," regarding preparation for spring gardening. There were two visitors, Mrs. Charles Gaskins, Springfield, and Miss Mary White.

Miss Maud Barter presented the topic, "Pamper Your Poinsettias," and another topic, "Various House Plants," was given by Mrs. S. M. Farrar, Mrs. LeRoy Reese and Mrs. Bess Hagler.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Michael Reshelter and Mrs. LeRoy Reese.

THE STORY: As a gunshot wound he received on the trail is being treated in Yreka, Ward Sebastian hears the soldiers have arrived to quell an uprising of Modocs.

Jeff Chesbro was talking with considerable vehemence to the officer who accompanied the girl in the cloak. As Sebastian came up, Jeff turned, plainly more than half angry.

"Sorry to drag you away from rest and food, Ward, but Captain Dillon here was insistent that he see you. Meet him. And — Miss Ashland."

The officer's handshake was brief, perfunctory, leaving the impression that it was purely a mechanical, not a natural courtesy. Sebastian looked past him at the girl.

"My privilege, Miss Ashland. I know a Major Ashland. He was on station at Fort Klamath."

"My uncle," she said. "Captain Dillon," Jeff Chesbro said, "brings a somewhat unusual request, Ward. Demand is even a better word."

Capt Judson Dillon was thin faced, darkly handsome, with coal black eyes holding the hard shine of an authority weighty to the border line of arrogance.

"I am faced with the necessity of putting through a transport detail to Tule Lake in the shortest possible time. This automatically rules out wagons in favor of a pack train. I have some service animals available, but not enough to handle the detail properly. How many mules, Mr. Sebastian, are you prepared to furnish me?"

Here was a thorough-going military martinet, one with little patience or regard for anything civilian.

"Perhaps you did not understand me, Mr Sebastian. I did not ask, would you? I asked, how many?"

"I told you—none?"

A taut silence fell, broken by the rustling of Connie Ashland's cloak as she stirred restlessly. She was a fairly tall girl, full of a mental and physical vigor which made it impossible for her to be a negative quantity. Now, as she watched the clash of wills between these two men blaze and grow, a deepening concern held her.

Captain Dillon spoke again, his tone flat. "You brought a pack string into Yreka this evening, Mr. Sebastian? How many?"

He had a way of emphasizing the "Mister" which was irritating in itself. Sebastian swung his shoulders and tried to hold onto his rising temper as he replied.

"Twenty-five. No, make that an even two dozen. I lost one along the trail."

"I'll settle for two dozen. I'll take them."

"You're forgetting something."

Sebastian said harshly, rough anger beginning to spill out of him. "That string of pack animals happens to belong to me. Strictly private property!"

"Which," Dillon retorted, "in the name of military necessity, I have full right and power to commandeer."

Sebastian turned to Chesbro. "Jeff, can this fellow be serious?" Chesbro nodded. "Afraid so."

And he can do it." Sebastian came slowly around to face Dillon again.

"Mighty rough on the animals. They should have at least one full day of rest before going out again. And when they do go, they should be carrying food supplies to civilian folks spread out across a big slice of country. Plenty of women and kids among these, too."

"I'm well aware of civilian needs. In my judgment, however, the present military need is greater." Jeff Chesbro spoke up. "Ward will be recompensed for the use of his mules?"

"Certainly," Dillon said. "The government will pay a fair rental per animal, per day."

"And of course I'll be going along," Sebastian said.

Jeff Chesbro came around fast. "Not with that arm of yours, Ward."

Sebastian shrugged. "The arm will have to do. When this chore is done with, I want my mules back in decent shape, not saddle-galled by careless saddling and packing or broken down from overloading."

"The Army," Dillon said stiffly. "has thoroughly capable packers."

"The Army," cut in Sebastian, "has blundered in this matter. Somebody didn't count right. And I'm being forced to pay the difference. Sam Lester and I will be going along to handle our string! I'll be there at daylight."

"You will not start until I say so," Dillon said, "for you will be transporting military supplies, and so require an escort."

"Captain, I'm willing to meet you half way. But I'll not stand for any deliberate pushing around. I know the trail between here and Tule Lake like I know the back of my hand. I know how much of it can be covered in an average day's travel. I know what the weather was coming in today and what it will probably be tomorrow. I'm leaving early so that I can reach Mike Golway's ranch before full dark, and spread my blankets under cover. If you want to pull out late, and put in tomorrow night in a wet, cold camp, that's your business. But don't try and hold me to such a deal, because I won't stand for it!"

Under the whip of Sebastian's words, Capt. Judson Dillon drew himself up ramrod-straight. "Very well. In the morning, then. Shall we go, Connie?" The girl followed him out, her head high.

Diplomats Indicate Mounting Public Pressure Make Summit Talks Inevitable

By K. C. THALER
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON (U.P.) — Highly-placed diplomats said today mounting public pressure in Europe has made a summit conference this year "inevitable."

They said there no longer is a question of whether there will be a heads-of-government meeting. The question now is how soon and on what conditions.

The Western diplomats have, step by step, whittled down their terms for such a gathering, the diplomats said, and now are merely seeking an advance agreement on the agenda for a "summit" meeting.

The diplomats termed it a clear case of public pressure forcing a course of action on the Western governments despite skepticism by some leaders of the usefulness of a rushed top-level get-together.

Pressure from public opinion on European governments — including Britain — was in turn considered to be forcing the pace of a reluctant United States in drawing closer to a heads-of-government parley.

Terms Whittled Down

This authoritative appraisal of the West's position followed Communist Party Leader Nikita Khrushchev's renewed call for an urgent summit session over the weekend and latest reaction from European capitals.

It cited mounting signs of a Western "climbdown" reflected in a progressive whittling down of Western terms for a summit parley.

The West at first firmly demanded an advance gesture from Russia of good will and sincerity.

careful preparations of a meeting through diplomatic channels and a foreign ministers conference.

Now, the West was held to have dropped tacitly many of these pre-requisites. At least, this was the impression which was emerging from official Western pronouncements.

Britain was reliably reported to be prepared to drop her earlier insistence that a foreign ministers conference, prepared by advance diplomatic consultations, precede any summit gathering.

Preparation Recommended

Instead, Britain now would be satisfied with careful advance preparation of a summit by ambassadors, or merely through diplomatic channels.

Diplomatic sources said the United States also appeared reluctantly prepared to accept such a course of action, and so did France.

Moreover, the West's earlier demand for an advance goodwill gesture from Moscow also appeared to be fading.

The West's terms at present centered, according to the sources, largely on an advance arrangement of the agenda of the projected top level talks.

The sources suggested that at any rate the West would not insist on "too many pre-conditions" for a meeting, to avert the charge that it is anxious to avoid East-West talks.

WEBQ to Participate in Second Annual 'Farm Broadcasting Day' On February 1

February 1 is National Farm Broadcasting Day and Station WEBQ will participate in the observance which this year has the theme "Broadcasting Serves Rural America," it was announced today by Inglis M. Taylor, station manager.

Mayor Claud Gibbons of Harrisburg, Mayor Carl Johnson of Eldorado, Mayor Freeman D. O'Keefe of Carrier Mills, and Mayor Lee R. Wallace of Galatia have issued a proclamation designating Feb.

25, D. C. and must be received or postmarked not later than the closing date.

"Farm Broadcasting Day." Radio Station WEBQ carries 15 newscasts, 6 market reports, 16 weather forecasts, 2 bulletin boards, daily. The following special programs will be carried Feb. 1 in observance of "Farm Broadcasting Day":

6:15 a. m. — Omer Woolridge, president, People's National Bank, McLeansboro, and Cecil Weaver's 4-H Clubs: "Blairsville Buckeroos," "Antioch Sparklers," "Flying Eagles," "Dahlgren Country Boys."

8:30 a. m. — "Breakfast on the Farm" with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Brann, RFD, Equality.

8:45 a. m. — Burton Shann, teacher of agriculture, Equality, with his FFA boys. Also, Mary Mossman and her Ridgway 4-H girls, and John Heaton, agriculture teacher, Ridgway, with his FFA boys.

9:15 a. m. — H. C. Bishop, agriculture teacher, Eldorado Township high school. Also, Jess Duckworth, farmer from Mills Shoals, and Nelson Fowler, farmer from Eldorado.

9:30 a. m. — Interview with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor, a farm family from Hamilton county.

9:45 a. m. — L. B. Kimmel, Saline county farm adviser.

10:45 a. m. — Marvin Wilkerson, McLeansboro, a leader in FFA work.

10:15 a. m. — Curtis Bradley family from Ridgway.

10:45 a. m. — F. E. Bramlet, farmer from Wason; Ralph Reeder, farmer from Eldorado; Alfred Rister, director of Gallatin County Soil Conservation, Omaha.

11:15 a. m. — Mr. and Mrs. George Aydelott of Horseshoe community, with Paul Halbersleben, director of the Saline County Soil Conservation District, and Tom Morgan, Farm Planner of the Saline County Soil Conservation District, will discuss farm and home-water systems.

11:45 a. m. — J. E. Stanford, director of Public Relations, Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, will discuss today's farm programs, with Alva A. Gholson, president of the Saline County Soil Conservation District, and Tom Morgan.

12:45 p. m. — H. C. Bishop, agriculture teacher, Eldorado Township high school.

1:30 p. m. — Larry Simerl, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

2:05 p. m. — H. H. Barlow, president Gallatin County Farm Bureau, Shawneetown. Also, feature guests at "Lamb Meet" at Dixon Springs Experimental Station.

4:00 p. m. — Announcement of WEBQ's Pig contest winner.

The second annual Farm Broadcasting Day is being observed nationally in recognition of the important role radio is playing in getting vital agricultural information to the public.

Technological and scientific progress is making it increasingly important that farmers have up-to-the-minute information on many developments affecting their business. More and more they are depending upon radio for such special services as reports on weather, markets, economic trends and government programs and regulations—as well as entertainment and general information.

Such reports enable the farmer to plan his operations on a sound business-like basis. For example, a single weather report may enable him to take steps which enable him to save an entire crop from a sudden freeze. Current market reports, along with reliable outlook information, serves as a guide to a more orderly marketing program, thereby helping consumers as well as producers.

The speed with which farmers receive and put into practice scientific discoveries, techniques and production tools has a direct effect upon their efficiency. This, in turn, largely determines their income, the quality of their products and the price the consumer pays. Today's farmer is producing more meat, milk and eggs per acre and per man hour worked—and the quality of the products is better. Thus, food costs have increased less than that for any other major necessity. This is largely because of the free and rapid flow of information.

As a further indication of the extent to which farmers depend upon broadcasting, recent surveys show that 98.4 per cent of all farm homes are equipped with one or more radios. This compares with 97.5 per cent for those living in villages and 97.1 per cent for urban dwellers. The average farm family listens to the radio 17 hours and five minutes weekly, while the U. S. average is 16 hours and 44 minutes.

Furthermore, 68.7 per cent of the farm-owned automobiles are equipped with radio, and this compares with 66 per cent for the cities. Many farm tractors, milk barns and other farm work centers are equipped with radio.

Co-sponsors of Farm Broadcasting Day are: The United States Dept. of Agriculture, the National Association of Radio Farm Directors, and the National Association of Broadcasters. Organizations actively co-operating include the National Grange, the American Farm Bureau Federation, and the National of Farm Cooperatives.

Hardware Store Workshop at SIU February 12

CARBONDALE, Ill.—Untangling and solving the problems of retail hardware store operation will be explained by experts at a workshop on the Southern Illinois University campus Feb. 12.

Sponsoring the workshop—"Exploring and Solving Your Hardware Store Problems"—will be SIU's Small Business Institute. Ralph Bedwell, director of the Institute, and sales and management consultants Frank Starnberg and Willmore Hastings, will head the 30-minute "problem" sessions. The workshop will begin at 9:30 a. m. in the SIU cafeteria and will adjourn at 7:30 p. m.

Main speakers will be Gene Cox, Marion, president of the Illinois Retail Hardware Association, and William F. Ewert, Chicago, managing director of the IRHA. Cox will address the 12:30 p. m. luncheon gathering and Ewert will give a talk summarizing the workshop at 7:15 p. m.

A feature of all sessions will be explanation and demonstration of brainstorming, a group "ad lib" discussion method of spawning ideas and problem solutions. Employees of a Carbondale hardware store will give a case demonstration of the method at the 5:45 p. m. dinner meeting.

Registrations may be mailed to the Small Business Institute at SIU. A $7.50 fee will cover the workshop and both meals.

Don T. Lacey, Manager of Safety Department for the CIPS, Retires

Don T. Lacey of Springfield, manager of the Safety and Insurance Department of Central Illinois Public Service Co., has been granted a leave of absence, effective Jan. 31. The leave will extend to his normal retirement date of Jan. 31, 1959. Lacey has worked more than 27 years for the company.

A native of Coles county, Lacey joined CIPS at Springfield in 1930 as an industrial development agent. From 1932 to 1933 he was group superintendent at White Hall and then served in the same capacity at Harrisburg until 1937. He returned to Springfield in February, 1937, as manager of the Safety Department. Later, certain insurance activities were added to his department.

During the 21 years that Lacey has been in charge of CIPS' employee safety program, the company has received numerous safety honors and citations. Last year, CIPS received the National Safety Council's "Award of Honor," highest citation that the council makes to industrial members for employee accident reduction.

The award was based on the company's 1956 safety record in reducing employee accident frequency more than 65 per cent under the prior three-year combined average for the company and the electric industry.

Lacey is a graduate of Mattoon Business College. He also took short courses in commercial organization management at Northwestern University, and in personnel management through the University of Illinois Extension Division.

Prior to joining CIPS, he was employed for 14 years by the New York Central Railroad in the engineering and claims departments at locations in Chicago, Indianapolis and Mattoon, and for three years by the Mattoon Association of Commerce as managing secretary.

During the past 20 years Lacey has been CIPS representative to the National Safety Council. He also is a member of the Springfield YMCA, Association of Commerce and Industry and Mid-Day Luncheon Club, the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce and the Central Illinois Adjunct Association.

In connection with his position, he has served as a member of the Edison Electric Institute's Accident Prevention Committee, and the committee's advisory board. He also has served on the Illinois Manufacturers' Association Workmen's Compensation Committee and as chairman of the Traffic Engineering Sub-Committee of the Sangamon County Citizens' Traffic Safety Committee.

Lacey and his wife, the former Flossie Doty of Charleston, reside in Pasfield Park Place and are planning to spend some time in Florida. They were married in 1916. Mrs. Lacey has been president of the Ceramics and Crafts club of Springfield and is presently on its board of directors. They are members of, and have been active in, the Westminster Presbyterian church.

To Conduct Mission At Equality Church

Father Bernard W. Lohmann, CSP

Father Bernard W. Lohmann, Paulist Father, will conduct the Mission at St. Joseph Church, Equality, beginning Sunday, Feb. 9, at 7:30 p. m. The Mission will close on Friday, Feb. 14.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
Charity suffereth long and is kind; Charity envieth not, charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up. 1 Cor. 13:4.

If we filled out the picture of true charity we would be wonderful friends and neighbors and citizens. It is within our reach.

Dartmouth's "Indians"
Nickname for Dartmouth College's athletic teams is "Indians," derived from the fact that the school was chartered in 1769 as a charity school for the Indians.

SPACE MINDED?

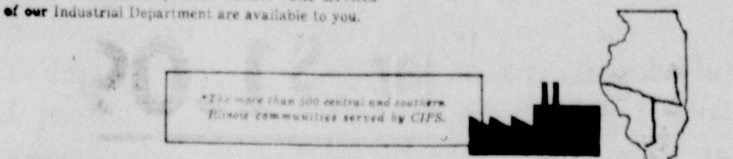

There's room for your new plant in CIPSTOWNS!

You can build your new plant virtually in the center of distribution and supply for the entire American market... and still have plenty of elbow room in which to expand.

Census Bureau figures show the population center of the United States is in the area served by Central Illinois Public Service Company... a growing industrial area which still has an abundance of good plant sites. Here is a resident working force of semi-skilled, professional and management-trained people to help maintain your production schedules.

Major railroad, air and trucking lines can speed your products to markets throughout the nation. There's large representation on the Mississippi, Illinois and Ohio rivers. Resources? Coal, minerals, agricultural products, petroleum... and always ample electric power.

So, if you're space minded... and profit minded... investigate available CIPStown sites. The services of our Industrial Department are available to you.

CIPS CENTRAL ILLINOIS PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY
GENERAL OFFICE: ILLINOIS BUILDING, SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS

CIPS CONTINUES AREA DEVELOPMENT IN 1958—Shown above is the first national advertisement scheduled in the 1958 area development advertising program of Central Illinois Public Service Co. It appeared in Wall Street Journal Jan. 28 and is scheduled for Electronics in February, and Nucleonics in March. Seven national publications will be used by CIPS this year to help promote the communities the company serves as ideal sites for industry.

CIPS Advertising Program Continues Efforts to Attract Industry to Area

The first advertisement in the 1958 area development advertising program of Central Illinois Public Service Co. appeared in Tuesday's eastern and mid-western editions of Wall Street Journal as the utility continues its efforts to attract the attention of the nation's industrialists, investors and plant locating agencies to the communities it serves.

W. A. Luecke, Southern Division Manager for CIPS, this week announced that seven different national publications will be on the company's area development advertising schedule in 1958. Wall Street Journal will be used to maintain "CIPStown" identity with business executives in general. In addition, CIPS will concentrate on six "trade" publications to reach specific industries.

The first ad for 1958 is captioned "Space Minded?" and points out that there's ample room for "your new plant in CIPStowns." It also emphasizes that the central location of communities served by the utility facilitates distribution and supply. The availability of adequate power, transportation and resources is cited.

Following the insertion in Wall Street Journal, Ad No. 1 will appear as a full page in Electron-

Filing Your Tax Return-- Medical, Dental Expenses

H. J. White, Director of the Internal Revenue Service for this district, today explained the rules for deducting medical and dental expenses on individual income tax returns for 1957.

To deduct medical and dental expenses, you must itemize your deductions on page 2 of Form 1040. You must list the name and amount paid to each person or organization. You can deduct only amounts actually paid during the year for medical and dental expenses for yourself, your wife and any dependent who received over half of his support from you.

You can deduct amounts paid for the prevention, cure, correction, or treatment of a physical or mental defect or illness. You can also deduct the cost of transportation necessary to get medical care. Meals and lodging expenses while away from home receiving medical treatment may not be deducted, however, unless they are part of a hospital bill.

You can also deduct payments to or for the following:

- Doctors, dentists, nurses and hospitals.
- Eyeglasses, artificial teeth, medical or surgical appliances, braces, etc.
- X-ray examinations or treatment.
- Premiums on hospital or medical insurance.

ies in February, and in Nucleonics in March. Subsequent insertions of other ads in the 1958 program are scheduled for Wall Street Journal, Appliance Manufacturer, Machinery, Chemical Week and Modern Plastics.

Luecke said names and addresses of many of the industries whose executives read the trade publications will be provided to local community organizations interested in industrial development. Reprints of each ad will be provided for local "follow up" efforts, he said.

CIPS began its industrial advertising program with a page ad in Business Week magazine in October, 1956. Three similar ads appeared in Business Week in 1957. The company has industrial engineers on the staff of each of its three operating divisions to assist industrial prospects in determining their power or fuel requirements.

Amounts paid for medicines and drugs may be included in medical expense only to the extent they exceed one percent of the adjusted gross income (the amount entered on line 11, page 1, of your Form 1040). For example, if a total of $300 was spent by you for medical expense and your adjusted gross income was $6,000, your deduction would be $120 ($300 minus three percent of $6,000, or $180 equals $120). Also the maximum amount deductible, regardless of the amount paid, is $2,500 multiplied by the number of exemptions to which you are entitled (other than exemptions for age or blindness). And further, $5,000 is the maximum amount that may be deducted for Funeral expenses.

Cemetery plot.
Illegal operations or drugs.
Premiums on life insurance.

Travel for a rest or cure.
There are certain limitations on the amount deductible as medical and dental expenses. In the first place, you may deduct only the amount paid in excess of three percent of your adjusted gross income (the amount entered on line 11, page 1, of your Form 1040). For example, if a total of $300 was spent by you for medical expense and your adjusted gross income was $6,000, your deduction would be $120 ($300 minus three percent of $6,000, or $180 equals $120). Also the maximum amount deductible, regardless of the amount paid, is $2,500 multiplied by the number of exemptions to which you are entitled (other than exemptions for age or blindness). And further, $5,000 is the maximum amount that may be deducted for medical expense on a separate return. Up to $10,000 may be deducted on a joint return of husband and wife, or on the return of a person qualifying as "head of household" or the return of a widow or widower qualifying for special tax rates as a "surviving spouse."

If either you or your wife are 65 years of age, or over, at the end of the year, you are not required to reduce your medical expense deduction by three percent of your adjusted gross income. But medical expenses paid for your dependents must be reduced by the three percent figure. Also, you may include amounts spent for medicines and drugs only to the extent they exceed one percent of your adjusted gross income, regardless of your age.

There are also special rules regarding the deduction of medical expenses of taxpayers who died during the year. If they are paid from the estate of the deceased within one year of the date of death, there is an option of deducting them on the final Federal income tax return of the deceased, or on the Federal estate tax return, if one is filed. Mr. White advised taxpayers of this district who have any question regarding the deduction for medical expense or any other matter on their Federal income tax return for 1957 to telephone or visit the local office of the Internal Revenue Service. The local office may be reached by telephone CL 3-7993. The address of the local office is 111 1-2 North Main, Harrisburg.

Cousy Scores 39 Points as Celtics Trip Hawks, 111-101

By United Press

The opposition still hasn't found a way to stop "little" Bob Cousy and as a result, the Boston Celtics are shoo-in favorites to win their second straight Eastern Division title in the National Basketball Assn.

The six-one Cousy, only one of four players ever to score more than 10,000 points in the NBA, tossed in 39 Wednesday night as the Celtics rolled to a 111-101 win over the St. Louis Hawks, whom they'll probably meet in the play-offs at the end of the season. The win widened Boston's lead over second-place Syracuse to six and one-half games.

It was the only game played.

Musial Signs Contract for Nearly $100,000

ST. LOUIS 17—Stan Musial, National league batting champion for the seventh time, today signed a 1958 St. Louis Cardinal contract calling for almost $100,000.

It was a near $20,000 raise for the indispensable slugger who has been drawing approximately $80,000 for the past three years. He indicated he will be around for at least two or three more.

Musial came to terms quickly after a short negotiating session with Cardinal owner August A. Busch Jr. in the latter's brewery penthouse.

General Manager Bing Devine described the contract as "pretty close to $100,000." He said it was the best pact "to our knowledge" ever signed by a National League player.

Musial, 37, bank director, owner of two restaurants and a solid St. Louis civic figure, will be entering his 17th year on the playing field with the Cardinals.

SIU Sports Briefs Campanella Is Feeling Better, But Still Critical

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Southern Illinois University's undefeated wrestling team hopes to extend its win streak to five straight in a home match against Eastern Michigan here at 7:30 p. m. Friday, (Jan. 31).

Southern lost only one match in beating Central Michigan, 26-5 for win number four at Mt. Pleasant, Mich. last Friday (Jan. 24).

Three of SIU's top wrestlers captain Lee Grubbs, Overland Mo.; Phil Thorne, Belleville; and Durward (Deke) Edwards, blind student from New Hartford, Mo. had to come from behind in two of their matches against Central Michigan.

Former conference champions, Gary Burdick, Omaha (Ill.), and Herman Ayres, Harvey, had easy bouts as they blanked their opponents. Grubbs won, 13-8, while Edwards and Thorne won one-point thrillers, 6-5, and 9-8.

Other SIU winners were Al Ross, Harvey; Jim Bledsoe, Granite City; and Mike Knapp, Sterling. Southern's only loser was heavyweight Houston Antwine, 235-pounder from Memphis, Tenn.

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Sporting a 3-1 season record, the Southern Illinois University swimming team faces one of its toughest matches in a clash with St. Louis University tankmen there Saturday, (Feb. 1).

Although badly crippled by the loss of several key performers because of injuries and low grades, Southern won nine of 10 firsts in crushing Western Illinois, 57-29, in a meet here last Friday, (Jan. 24).

SIU established four new records including new pool and team records in the 400-yard medley relay. Southern's relay team composed of Bob Steele Hartford; Charles Stratton Mt. Vernon; Wayne Olsen Bellwood; and Bob Schulhoff Chicago swam the distance in 4:20.8, clipping 3.5 seconds off the SIU mark and 19 seconds off the pool record.

Setting new SIU individual records were Steele with a 2:29.4 time in the 200-yard backstroke, and Joe Barry, Edwardsville, with a :56.2 mark in the 100-yard freestyle.

Southern's final home dual meet will be against Loyola University here Friday, Feb. 7.

Campanella Is Feeling Better, But Still Critical

GLEN COVE, N. Y. 17—Roy Campanella must be getting better. He's even cracking jokes.

Campanella's wife, Ruthie, the only one permitted to visit the hospitalized 36-year-old Los Angeles Dodger catcher so far, said today her husband "looks much more cheerful" and even was able "to tell jokes."

The statement coincided with the latest hospital bulletin which said, "Roy's condition is somewhat better. Strength and movement is beginning to return to his hands. Feeling is present throughout his arms, hands and upper chest although his legs remain paralyzed."

It was the most encouraging bulletin issued by officials of Community Hospital since Campanella was admitted early Tuesday after suffering a broken neck in a near fatal auto accident.

Although Harry Gifford, the hospital administrator, indicated Campanella is recuperating faster than was originally expected, he emphasized that the ball player still is on the critical list.

Dr. Robert W. Sengstaken performed a four-hour operation on Campanella Tuesday.

Dr. Sengstaken examined Campanella three times Wednesday and noted an improvement in his general condition each time. The chubby catcher said he was able to feel it when doctors pinched his chest or arms, whereas he was unable to feel the prick of hypodermic needles originally.

The hospital continued to be swamped with telegrams and get-well letters for the injured Campanella.

President Eisenhower sent a wire as did Dodger players Don Zimmer, Clem Labine and Gil Hodges, among others.

Bull Dogs Play at West Frankfort Friday Night in South Seven Tilt

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs get back into South Seven conference basketball competition this week, meeting tough West Frankfort on the Red Birds' floor Friday night. For the first time in a long while the locals this week will be idle on a Saturday night.

The Bull Dogs will be facing a big team that currently is ranked No. 2 in the state in the Associated Press poll and No. 4 in the poll conducted by the United Press.

And to make matters worse for the locals, Red Bird Coach George Iubelt this week put his boys under strict training restrictions following their 13-point loss to Herrin in the Pyramid tournament on the Frankfort floor last Friday night. The Frankfort crew should be a fighting-mad outfit after this action.

Hassett Leads Local Scorers

Harrisburg has played well against Frankfort in two losing efforts this year. In Davenport gym Dec. 20, Frankfort won 60-50, but was ahead only three points at one time in the fourth quarter. Then in the Egyptian Holiday tourney here Frankfort won after Harrisburg had held the lead until only three minutes and 45 seconds were left in the game.

In that first contest big 6-5 Vlado Zavich scored 27 points. At Christmas time he had 17 and Francis Florian 16.

Harrisburg Coach John Dotson probably will go along with the starting five he has used about all year — Ron Maynard despite broken finger at center, John Stone and Kinch Jones at forwards, and Ray Hassett and Bob Pavelonis at guards.

A look at current compilations show that Hassett is leading the team in scoring with 242 points, an average of 13.4 per game. Next is Maynard, with 212 points, an 11.8 average, followed by Pavelonis' 208 points, an 11.6 average. Stone's 176 points, a 9.8 average and Jones' 167 points, a 9.3 average. The other boys on the squad

Other Games This Week

Hassett has hit 89 out of 126 for .706, Maynard 50 out of 71 for .704 and Pavelonis 64 out of 93 for .688 to top the squad in the free throw department.

There will be two other South Seven games Friday night—Marion at Benton and Herrin at Centralia. Mt. Vernon is idle. Other games that evening are Christopher at Galatia, Blufford at Thompsonville, Golconda at Equality, El Dorado at Norris City, Ridgway at Rosiclare, Murphysboro at Carbondale, Sesser at Carterville, Karnak at Joppa, Du Quoin at Sparta, Tammis at Mounds Douglass, Shawnee Unit at Vienna, Coulterville at Valmeyer, Woodlawn at Royalton, Hurst-Bush at Elkhart, Brookport at Goreville, Johnston City at McLeansboro, Dahlgren at Crab Orchard and Marissa at Steeleville.

A top Saturday night game will be at Carbondale, where undefeated Carrier Mills will play Attacks. Other games are Galatia at Equality, Carbondale at Chester, Pinckneyville at Murphysboro, Centralia at Collinsville, Mt. Vernon at Springfield Lanphier, Metropolis at Johnston City and Anna at Du Quoin.

Galatia, Ridgway Play for Midget Tourney Title

Galatia and Ridgway will meet at 7:45 p. m. today for the championship of the Midget conference tournament.

They won their way to the title game with victories over Broughton and Raleigh in the semifinals Wednesday night.

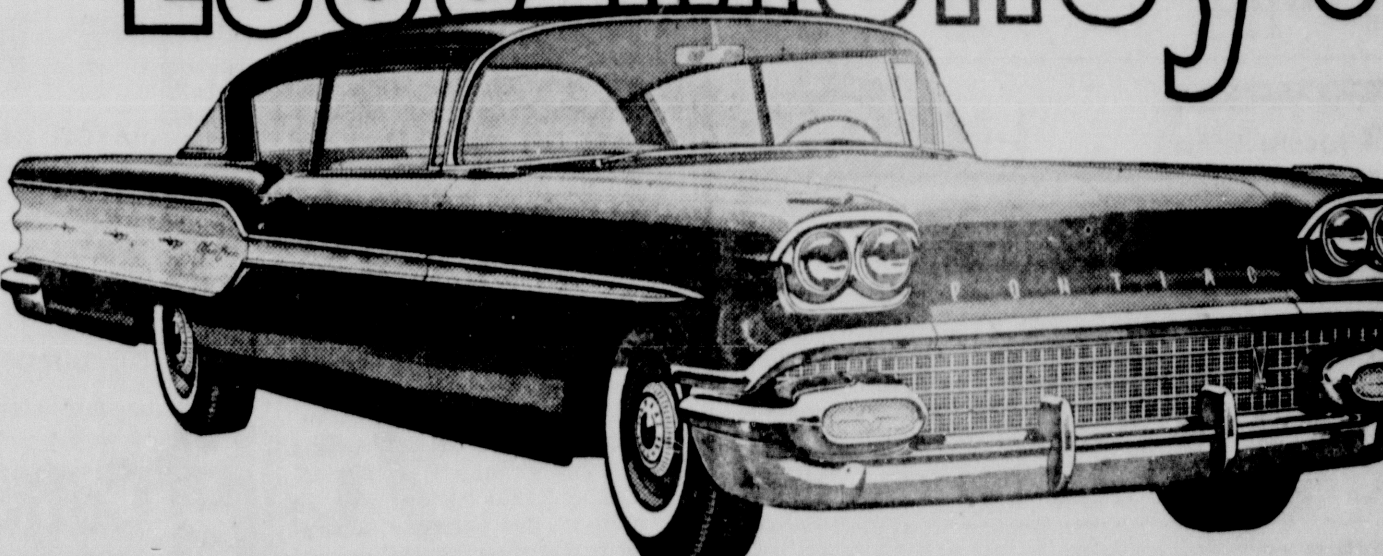

In the first semifinal game Galatia won from Broughton 42-33 then Ridgway beat Raleigh 38-21. Last night's losers meet at 6:30 this evening for consolation honors.

Contractor Refuses to Answer Probers Despite Contempt Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chicago contractor S. A. Healy refused to answer Senate Rackets Committee questions today despite a threat of contempt which produced a shouting match between his attorney and Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.).

The interlude came when Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) offered Healy a chance to change his mind and answer committee questions about operations of his contracting firm. Healy Wednesday became the first witness in the current inquiry to claim the Fifth Amendment's protection against self-incriminating testimony.

Healy refused to talk about $228,923 charged on his firm's books as non-tax deductible expenses or to say whether any of the money went to William E. Maloney. Maloney is the president of the Operating Engineers Union who, with his wife, was disclosed Wednesday to hold 10 safe-deposit boxes scattered around the nation.

Questioned today about whether his firm held a 1956 Navy Department contract for construction of aqueducts in San Diego, Healy again invoked the Fifth Amendment. Healy also refused to answer when McClellan asked whether he honestly believed a truthful answer might tend to incriminate him.

McClellan ordered the committee staff to take the same action in Healy's case as it is taking against two Tennessee Teamsters Union officials who recently took the same position. The staff is preparing contempt of Congress papers against the pair.

Then McNamara, one-time local official of the Pipefitters Union, tangled with Jacob Grumet Fealy's lawyer.

McNamara commented that McClellan had "properly castigated" labor leaders and businessmen about their use of the Fifth Amendment. He suggested that McClellan should "properly castigat" the bar association too.

As Grumet jumped to his feet McNamara added that committee witnesses claim the privilege of their constitutional protection "on the advice of their attorneys" who ought to reap some of the criticism, too.

"That is a most unfair statement to the members of the bar," Grumet said. He said the Fifth Amendment is a part of the Constitution and that its protection is a privilege of all citizens.

Earlier, Sen. Sam J. Ervin (D-N.C.) had called the Operating Engineers the most "deplorable union yet investigated by the committee."

Welborn Pleased At Decision to Name 2 Candidates

Wayman Leroy Welborn Jr., candidate for the Democratic nomination for the state legislature, was visiting in Harrisburg yesterday. He stated that the principal purpose of his being in Saline county was to congratulate Ezra Heatherly, chairman of the Legislative Representative Committee of the 59th District, for the decision to nominate two Democrats as candidates in the November election.

Mr. Welborn stated that he believed this action was for the best interest of the Democratic party in this section of our state. Also, that a contest between Republican and Democratic candidates in the general election in November would give the independent voter a voice in the election of members of the state legislature which is in the interest of better state government.

Prior to the meeting of the committee last Saturday at which time a resolution was passed to nominate two Democrats, Mr. Welborn actively urged this action.

Mr. Welborn is the present county treasurer of Williamson county.

Dies at Creal Springs

Mrs. Lula Grover, 82, died in her home at Creal Springs Tuesday evening. Funeral services were held at 1:30 p. m. today in the Cosby funeral home in Creal Springs with Rev. D. C. Morningstar officiating. Burial was in the County Line cemetery near Creal Springs.

Youth Charged with First Degree Murder

Packard automobile during the wild chase through Douglas.

Upstairs in another jail cell, Carl Fugate, his 14-year-old companion during his two-state rampage with rifle and shotgun, emerged from the influence of sedatives given her after she was brought in yesterday.

But her state of shock seemed giving way to hysteria. She repeatedly called "Mom, Mom!" from her jail cell.

Her mother is dead and was one of the victims of Starkweather's rampage, along with her step-father and half sister.

Two county commissioners, E. C. Robbins and George Cross, said they will try to get County Atty. William Dixon to waive prosecution so that Nebraska authorities may extradite Starkweather.

Complicating the situation was Gov. Milward Simpson's avowed stand against capital punishment.

FBI is interested. Dixon conferred with federal authorities. The FBI has a fugitive warrant out for Starkweather, and indications were there might be federal kidnapping charges involved.

Dixon disclosed Wednesday night that Starkweather spent an hour writing a statement which Heflin called a "confession." Dixon would not say what it contained.

Starkweather, who had dyed his bright red hair black with shoe polish and worn six-sided glasses as a disguise, indicated he would plead self-defense, although evidence indicated at least three of his victims were killed in their sleep and a fourth was a 3-year-old girl.

"I shot them all in self defense," he was quoted as telling a deputy sheriff.

He also absolved his girl friend of any connection with the trail of murders in his two-state, 525-mile flight from Lincoln in cars stolen from his victims.

"The girl had not part in it," Starkweather said of his dark-haired sweetheart. "Don't get rough with her. I had her as a hostage. I did all the work."

Police Chief Bob Ainsley, who helped capture Starkweather, said the stocky, 5-foot-10-inch youth "was a real smart alec" after the arrest and kept "smarting off about our car."

However, in jail later Starkweather turned sullen and cowered in a corner of his cell part of the time and lay on his cell bunk hiding his face at other times.

Killer Faced Blindness

At Lincoln, Starkweather's grieving parents were relieved to hear he had been captured alive and claimed he went "berserk" because he faced blindness within a year.

Starkweather's father, Guy, an unemployed carpenter, said his son had been worried about his

T. A. Logsdon Rites Wednesday Near Shawneetown

The funeral of T. A. Logsdon, 82, resident of Shawneetown who died in the Eldorado nursing home at 2:30 p. m. Monday, was held in the Ringgold Presbyterian church at 2 p. m. Wednesday. Rev. R. L. Westervelt, former pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Edgar Miner and burial was in the Hogan cemetery.

Thomas Allen Logsdon, son of the late Joseph Logsdon III and Elizabeth Logsdon, was born Jan. 4, 1876. He remained a resident of the Bowlesville community for many years and was a farmer. He operated a parking lot in East St. Louis for about 15 years prior to his moving to Shawneetown about 15 years ago. His wife, the former Miss Rebecca Floyd, preceded him in death two years ago.

Surviving are his children, born of a previous marriage to Betty Pierson Logsdon who died while they were very young. They are: Mrs. Everett (Mary) Lambert, Junction, and Thomas Allen Logsdon Jr., living in the family home. He also leaves his brother, Joseph Eddings, Eden, Texas; his two sisters, Mrs. Charles Willis and Mrs. Nannie Barlow, both of Shawneetown; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

William Heflin, 84, Retired Farmer, Dies; Former Resident

William Heflin, 84, a retired farmer who formerly lived in Saline and Williamson counties, died in his home at 603 Adams street, West Frankfort, at 8 p. m. Wednesday. The body will lie in state at the Courtney funeral home in Galatia until the funeral at 2 p. m. Saturday in the Ebenezer Cumberland Presbyterian church west of Galatia. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Mr. Heflin is survived by his wife Ora and eight children as follows: Claude Heflin, Galatia. Isaac Heflin, West Frankfort. Fomer Heflin, Harrisburg. Mrs. Gertrude Fields, Galatia RFD. Mrs. Lena Hazel and Mrs. Ruth Thomas, West Frankfort. Mrs. Wanda Marvel, Thompsonville and Mrs. Josephine Allen, West Frankfort. He leaves one sister, Mrs. Anna Dearing, Thompsonville, RFD.

sight and other ailments.

"A few years ago he had been hit on the forehead with a two-by-four and never felt right since," the father said of the youth.

Nebraska authorities said they want Starkweather for the murders of at least nine persons, all killed in groups of three.

The victims were C. Lauer Ward, prominent Lincoln businessman, his wife and maid, whose bodies were discovered Wednesday; Robert Jensen, 17, his girl Carol King, 16, and August Meyer, 70, all of Bennet, Neb., whose bodies were found Tuesday, and Carl's mother, Velda Bartlett, 36, her stepfather, Marion, 57, and her half-sister Betty, 3, found slain Monday.

Nebraska police also suspect Starkweather in the robbery-murder last Dec. 1 of Robert Colvert, a service station attendant in Starkweather's neighborhood. It was believed Carl may have learned of this crime, leading Starkweather to abduct her and embark on his murder spree.

Caught By Chance

Starkweather was caught by chance after a motorist, Joe Sprinkle of Casper, Wyo., saw the killer's getaway car parked along side a highway near Natural Bridge Wyo. and offered his assistance.

Starkweather menaced Sprinkle with a .22 caliber rifle, warning, "You better help me get the emergency brake off this car or I'll kill you."

Just then deputy sheriff William Roamer drove up, possibly preventing Sprinkle from becoming Starkweather's next victim.

Carl jumped from Starkweather's car and ran screaming to Roamer.

"He's killed a man . . . he's crazy . . . he's going to kill me," she shouted.

"Who?" Roamer asked. "Starkweather," the girl said.

The fugitive drove off down the highway in the 1956 black Packard he had stolen from Ward. Roamer radioed for help and the chase was on.

Getaway Car Riddled

Police riddled the getaway car, knocking Starkweather in the right ear. The killer, apparently frightened by the sight of his own blood, stopped the car and surrendered a short time later.

"I should have aimed a little to the left and killed him," said Sheriff Earl Heflin.

The sheriff said, "a quarter of an inch would have done it. Another quarter of an inch and I'd have blown his head off."

Rainfall in Texas varies from an annual average of more than 50 inches in the east to less than 10 inches in the west.

Scott Base to Close Technical Training Schools

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (UP) — Officials of Scott Air Force Base announced Wednesday all of the technical training schools are to be closed and the base's population of 8,500 will be cut in half as a result.

Lt. Gen. Charles T. Myers, Commander of the Air Training Command, said the schools will be transferred to Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., but the closing of the schools at the base would be extended over a period of one year.

Scott Air Force Base will be devoted to the nearly exclusive use

Dundee Woman, 35, Is Named Illinois Polio Mother of Year

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — Mrs. Jean Ryan, 35, Dundee, has been named "polio mother of the year" for the 1958 March of Dimes campaign in Illinois.

Mrs. Ryan, mother of three children, was stricken with polio in August, 1952, and spent more than two years in northern Illinois hospitals. She has learned to type with her toes and to paint by handling a brush with her mouth.
